

APPLICATION TO WRIGHT COLLEGE

Letter of Application

Welcome to Wright College, the place you want to be. As part of the application to this institution you must include a two-page, typed letter of introduction. The letter is an opportunity for us to get to know you and the attributes you may have that will help you to succeed at our highly competitive college.

The structure of the letter is simple and must be followed so that all letters in the application competition can be compared fairly. Use the following headings:

- Introduction
- Personal Attributes that Ensure Success
- Personal Goals Already Met
- Personal Goal(s) Established
- Anticipated Barriers to Success and Possible Solutions

Scoring

Each of the responses will be scored using the following criteria and mark allotments:

- Provides a detailed and reflective portrayal of oneself. /10
- Identifies personal strengths and how these have contributed to goals met and goals set. /10
- Explains the possible barriers that may impede success and has identified a few possible solutions to deal with these barriers. /10
