

1. From the list above, choose nine words and write them in the ovals of the Word Cycle in an order of your choice. Each word should have a logical connection to the next word. Make brief notes between the ovals to explain your logic (how the words are connected).
2. With a partner, compare your Word Cycles and discuss differences and similarities in your points of view.